Wedding Handbook

ABOUT US

Founded as a floral shop, Mimosa Posy has since evolved into a creative studio specialized in bespoke wedding design and styling. Led by two partners, Mimi and Boat, who are dedicated to creating celebrations that are deeply personal and reflective of each couple's individuality.

At the heart of our work is a unique passion for breaking away from conventional wedding scenes. Mimosa Posy crafts authentic experiences where every detail fosters a sense of connection-between couples, their guests, and the celebration itself. Our approach goes beyond decorations and aesthetics; every element is thoughtfully curated to represent who the couple truly is, what they love and the emotions they wish to share. By prioritizing meaningful interactions and intentional design, we craft weddings that heightens emotions, and evokes a sense of intimacy. For us, true magic lies in the smallest details, ensuring our clients have the best experience throughout their journey, and making every step — right down to the celebration itself — feel meaningful, intentional, and unforgettable.

Purpose

To design weddings that feel deeply personal, intimate reflections of who you are, told through every detail. We are not just decorators or stylist; we are your co-creator. Our work begins and ends with you.

Vision

To create weddings that feel beyond a tradition, they are lived experience, filled with emotions, connections and presence. We care deeply about your journey, crafting experiences that are not only beautiful, but truly felt—before, during and long after.

Ethos

We believe in thoughtful, beautiful celebrations that tread lightly on the earth. Our floristry is completely foam-free and designed using reusable tools. From mindful sourcing to intentional design, sustainability is woven into every step, and we are always seeking new ways to do better.
